

Sound Emporium

Nashville, Tennessee

Originally the Sound Emporium Recording Studio worked out of two buildings: a renovated home and a free-standing concrete block building for the recording studios. They came to us to pull it all together.

Our project consisted of renovating the recording areas and building a connection to the office and lobby areas, providing a more cohesive and professional facility with updated and attractive spaces.