

Poplar Grove Elementary School

Franklin, Tennessee

Built for the Franklin Special School District, this school serves as a year-round facility. One of its special features is a geo-thermal system for both heating and cooling.

A large building providing classroom space for kindergarten through eighth grade, the school also has two dining areas, large and small gymnasiums and a media center.