

Full Life Christian Center
Franklin, Tennessee

The project was a unique combination of a complete recording studio with the Full Life Church. During the week, the building is used as a commercial studio and on the weekends and Wednesday nights the building is used as a full service church.